Housing Matters Chief Operating Officer

Definition

Housing Matters partners with individuals and families to create pathways out of their homelessness into permanent housing. Housing Matters is a leader in working to end homelessness – and we want you to be part of our team. Housing Matters is looking for individuals eager to make a difference and willing to enthusiastically commit to join in our vision that homelessness in Santa Cruz County should be rare, brief and non-recurring.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Chief Operating Officer (COO) will be a strategic thought-partner and report to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). The successful candidate will be a hands-on and participative manager and will lead and develop an internal team to support the following areas: Operations, Campus Safety, Facilities, Construction Management and IT.

The COO will play a critical role in partnering with the senior leadership team in strategic decision making and operations as Housing Matters continues to enhance its quality programming and build capacity. This is a tremendous opportunity for an operations leader to maximize and strengthen the internal capacity of a well-respected, mission-driven organization.
